

PORTUONDO

LONDON MADRID NEW YORK

Piero Fornasetti

PORTUONDO

LONDON MADRID NEW YORK

(1913-1988)

Architettura Trumeau

Screenprint transfer on wood and steel, lacquered wood, glass, brass

The Architettura trumeau is a piece of furniture designed by Piero Fornasetti and Gio Ponti that is recognized as an icon of Italian artistic design.

Trumeau cabinet features two doors concealing six removable shelves, one drop-front writing surface, illuminated display and three drawers.

Metal manufacturer's label to interior of top drawer 'Fornasetti Milano'. Dated to edge of base '5-8-89'

c. 1989

Italy Bibliography Patrick Mauriès, Fornasetti: Designer of Dreams, London, 1991, pp. 100-

101 Brigitte Fitoussi, Piero Fornasetti: A Conversation Between Philippe Starck and Barnaba

Fornasetti, Paris, 2005, pp. 23-24 Barnaba Fornasetti, Fornasetti: The Complete Universe

Height 217 cm Depth 41 cm Width 80 cm

Art. id =42609